cocktails & tapas & more

The cocktails at the hip & happening manifesto bar are the talk of the town. From classic martinis to innovative mixes like the Chinesis, a mixture of muddled lychees and lemongrass with vodka, to the One Night of Desire, mixed berries muddled and mixed with vodka, cranberry juice and mixed berry liqueur. And the now signature cocktail Crazy Iced Tea – fresh watermelon muddled with lychee and topped off with vodka and jasmine tea -- manifesto's awash in great drinks.

The perfect accompaniment to the drinks: manifesto's tantalizing tapas menu. The selection of gourmet bite-sized delicacies includes honey onion compote with pan fried goats cheese, crisp calamari rings served with sauce remoulade and the baby burgers ~ just like a large burger but smaller ~ with pickle, cheese, lettuce and mustard aioli – you will know why these are a favorite.

It's a favorite pre-clubbing meeting spot in the evenings, but daytime sees another type of meeting here. Open at 10am for our famous coffee and pastries, manifesto is an intimate daytime meeting place for friends and for businesspeople looking for a quiet spot away from the office.

Guests -- Asian and Western, expat and Shanghainese – revel in the unique ambience. At manifesto, sophisticated shades of sapphire and ruby dominate the space, with chairs upholstered in denim, plush banquettes running around the edge of the room and a graceful beaten-copper bar, with its colorful display of bottles. The high ceilings, industrial lights and exposed pipes – painted the deep, rich red of a fine Burgundy – hint at the building's former incarnation as an electronics factory.

Cocktails or coffee; tapas with friends or a drink with the boss: manifesto's hip, chic vibe makes it one of the city's favorite watering holes.
